Terms and Conditions: January 1st 2012

1. Cash4coins offers a transparent service to exchange most coins and notes including many obsolete currencies from around the world including old UK, Irish, Scottish, Channel Islands and Isle of Man coins and notes.
2. Currency that is no longer exchangeable does not need to be sorted from other currency and we will pay the scrap value of £1-£2.50 per kilogram to ensure that customers postage costs to us are covered. Scrap coins included in coins that have been collected at our expense will not be purchased unless from a registered charity.
3. Cash4coins will not be responsible for any loss via Royal Mail prior to acceptance at our mailing centre.
4. All packages sent to cash4coins must be by recorded delivery or our drop off or courier collection service.
5. Large volumes of currency will be collected free of charge by our secure collection service.
6. Upon receipt of secure packages all postage will be signed for, weighed and photographed.
7. Packages arriving marked as damaged by the Royal Mail will be secured, weighed and photographed and the damage/details forwarded to the sender.
8. Currency can be delivered personally to our mail centre. It will still require the normal timescales for payment and exchange on delivery is not possible.
9. We will notify all customers of receipt of their currency by email. An email address must be provided for all quotations to purchase currency and clearly written on the OUTSIDE of the package below our address.
10. While all care will be taken during the sorting and counting of the currency we cannot guarantee accuracy above 98% due to the many similarities between currencies.
11. All quotations will be sent within 3-14 days of confirmation of receipt.
12. We must receive an email confirming that you accept our purchase offer. Telephone notification is not acceptable.
13. If we do not receive acceptance of our offer in 14 days the currency may be sold and payment forwarded as per our quotation to buy. We must minimise the volume of currency held in case of large changes in values due to natural disaster or acts of terrorism.
14. Currency will be returned by secure mail free of charge if you do not accept our offer. (UK only, others at cost)
15. Returned currency will not include a sorting record and may be returned mixed.
16. Payment for currency will be made to one recipient either by bank transfer, paypal or cheque as chosen by the customer.
17. All payments are concluded within 48 hours of confirmation to purchase emails.
18. Cash4coins will report any circumstances necessary to comply with Anti-money-laundering-regulations.
19. Cash4coins will endeavour to ensure any currency with a collectable value is identified but cannot be responsible for currency that is not identified and is subsequently exchanged at our quotation rate.
20. Any currency that is damaged, soiled or otherwise not easily identifiable may be regarded as scrap during our inspection of the currency.
21. Cash4coins reserves the right at any time to return the currency without payment and without compensation for postage. This is regardless of any offer to purchase being made or accepted.
